TREASURY ASKS $1,809,000,000

New Financing Includes Borrowing of $800 000 000 To Bring Debt to New Peak

TAX MESSAGE AWAITED

Loan Operations Will Raise Public Obligations to Total of $31 300 000 000

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON March 2—The fight over government spending sharpened today as congress awaited President Roosevelt's $786 000 000 tax message and the treasury launched a $1 809 000 000 financing operation of which $800 000 000 is new borrowing

The loan operations will raise the gross public debt to $31 300 000 000 on April 15 a new all time peak The administration contends cash on hand which estimates say will total more than $2 000 000 000 on April 15 should be subtracted from the gross debt to get the actual debt

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States and the National Economy league published statements demanding retrenchment he latter assailing what it termed soak the poor taxation

The President's message recommending taxation to cover the $500 000 000 farm program the loss of the invalidated AAA processing taxes and part of the bonus payment cost was expected to reach congress tomorrow

Congress which convened Jan 3 stood today at about the half way mark of a projected four months session and it appeared that much of the remaining time would be occupied with fiscal controversies

The two paramount topics remaining are taxes and relief Some weeks are expected to elapse before the administration submits its recommendation for relief for the fiscal year beginning next July 1 There have been indications that officials will seek to keep this appropriation below $2 000 000 000

Whether this will be done remained a question in the minds of many legislators especially in view of a pessimistic unemployment summary published today by the American Federation of Labor It placed the number of jobless in January at 12 626 000 an increase of 1 229 000 over December This was the largest December to January increase in five years The A F of L laid it to slackened manufacturing operation and lengthened working hours

COLD DAMAGE IN OHIO RUNS TO HIGH MARK

Survey Shows Public Service Property Repairs Will Approximate Five Millions

ROADS, BRIDGES HARD HIT

Marion County Loss Below Average, Figures in Statewide Inquiry Show

The recent record cold wave that swept over Ohio left in its wake damage upwards of $5 000 000 to roads street bridges and other public service property The Associated Press reported today

Although an approximate figure in Marion city and county was not available city officials estimated damage would run from $6 000 to $8 000 more than an average winter while county officials said damage to county roads and bridges would come close to the average of other years

The Ohio and Marion estimates an incomplete survey showed cover the cost of repairing streets and highways eaten up by freezing and water mains and other water equipment damaged from the same cause The survey took into account neither damage to crops and fruit trees nor private losses by fire The Marion Water Co suffered no damage to its mains and only slight damage to home service lines and meters officials reported

Provides Jobs

However there is one bright spot in the picture in that the sub zero temperatures created temporary work for thousands making repairs afforded coal miners extra days and turned a heavy volume of passenger and freight business from motor vehicles to railroads

Marion's service and safety director John V Ruth said damage to streets here would run between $6 000 and $8 000 more than in an average year In addition there is the cleaning up expense which he said could not yet be estimated Ragged holes and depressions have appeared in a number of streets Drainage to the sub surface weakens the street in spots causing small holes and depressions that are enlarged by the constant flow of traffic street repairmen explained

Director Ruth said there was also an excessive amount of surface water this winter due to catch basins freezing up and retarding the flow of the water Consequently many basements in private homes and buildings were flooded he explained Workmen have been busy on city streets in the last few days and repairs will be in progress throughout the spring months The small working staff and limited funds in the city service department will mean a longer period than usual will be required for the annual spring repair work

Road Damage At Average

County Surveyor Carl H Tozzer said damage to county roads and bridges probably would not run more than during an average winter Roads are very soft he said but recently the county has posted signs limiting vehicle loading to about half of that permitted by state law which is expected to check damage to road beds considerably A few washouts on county roads in the vicinity of LaRue were discovered and are being repaired before traffic over them causes further damage

There may be more than ordinary damage to bridge abutments which will not be found

Inquiry into Fight Against Holding Company Law Resumed Under Sen Black

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON March 2 — A court order temporarily restraining the Western Union Telegraph Co from supplying the senate lobby committee with messages sent by his law firm was issued today after Silas H Strawn charged the investigators with illegal and unconstitutional methods

The Chicago attorney whose firm is Winston Strawn & Shaw is a former president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and a member of the Republican finance committee

He said a blanket order for his firm's telegrams amounted to a fishing expedition Justice Jesse C Adkins of the District of Columbia supreme court granted the temporary injunction sought and set the case for hearing Thursday The enjoining order will expire Monday

Says Nothing to Hide

Strawn said in a statement the firm had nothing to conceal but that he objected to having our private affairs and the affairs of our clients subjected to such an unreasonable and unconstitutional search and seizure

The complaint said the senate committee issued a subpoena on Feb 18 directed to T B Kings bury superintendent of Western Union in Washington demanding copies of all telegrams sent and received by Strawn's firm from Feb 1 1935 to Dec 1 1936

It said both the subpoenae and the resolution setting up the committee were unconstitutional because they constituted an attempt to make a general inquisitorial investigation and fishing expedition into the private affairs and business of persons firms and corporations in the United States

Former Bar Association Head

Strawn also is a former president of the American Bar association

The complaint further alleged the subpoenae required the divulging of privileged communications between lawyer and client

Upon reopening his investigation Chairman Black Democrat of Alabama of the lobby committee read a memorandum from the Western Union Co which said the Dominion Natural Gas Co Ltd an Ontario corporation spent $2 164 on telegrams directed against the utility bill

S B Severson vice president and general manager of the company was on the stand

Severson told the committee that the Dominion concern is a subsidiary of the Cities Service Co

Building Service Strike Hits Most of New York

Some Sections Negotiate Agreements as Walkout Spreads; LaGuardia Proclaims Emergency.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK March 2 — The paralyzing sweep of the New York building employe strike spread through most of the city today although James J Bambrick strike leader announced agreements rapidly were being signed with building owners for restoration of workers

Mayor LaGuardia proclaimed an emergency

As the walkout spread shortly after noon through the crowded midtown business and garment area, the mayor ordered all city departments to arrange for deputization of all persons needed to provide building service as required by health and safety standards

Municipal employes encompassed by the proclamation total more than 40 000

When he took this action the only buildings in which a walkout had not been ordered were the skyscrapers in the financial district

Elevator men janitors and other employes were ordered out of all buildings north of 14th street by Bambrick president of the Building Service Employes union

Group Accepts Union Terms

Shortly afterward however he announced that the Metropolitan Association of Building Owners representing 110 apartment houses on swank Park avenue and the upper west side had agreed to the union terms

Men in those buildings went back to work at once promised a $2 weekly increase a closed shop and a 48 hour week

By tonight Bambrick declared the strike would be extended to the Wall Street financial district the only portion untouched by the morning walkout

More Police Called Out

The strike calculated to paralyze the normal routine of a city of skyscrapers where up and down travel is as necessary as going to and fro spread in the face of trebled forces of policemen called out to prevent possible disorders

With dramatic suddenness the walkout broke a Sabbath calm in exclusive Riverside drive and Central Park west residential sectors

Early yesterday furnacemen banked their fires chambermaids threw down their mops and elevator operators stopped their cars

Before superintendents and residents had an inkling of what was happening employes marched out of buildings and formed picket lines

Sporadic fighting between pickets and hastily hired employes injured at least four persons and caused a score of arrests

The strike threat was hung over the city for almost a month while union leaders and operators, brought together by Mayor F H LaGuardia sought to reach an agreement

The mayor called a conference today with city health officials to consider the effect of the strike on the city's welfare and in some quarters was expected to declare a civic emergency and order police

ESCAPE WITH SLIGHT INJURY

Plane Demolished as It Hits Fence and Tree in Field Near Marion

OCCUPANTS' FACES CUT

Accident Occurs as Pilot Strives To Simulate Forced Landing

A Marion pilot Donald H Gilbert 23 of 871 Bellefontaine avenue and an apprentice mechanic, Russell Williams 21 of near Marengo narrowly escaped serious injury early Sunday afternoon when an airplane in which they were flying crashed in a field on the W H Davids farm eight miles south of Marion on the Gooding pike

Both suffered minor cuts about the eyes caused when glass in their goggles broke as the plane hit the ground The plane a training ship owned by the Marion Flying Service Inc was demolished It had left the airport a short time before the crash

Pilot Gilbert was simulating a forced landing Harold Cobb manager of the Marion Flying Service, explained and had started a drop from a height of 500 feet When the plane was within 15 feet of the ground and the pilot was ready to 'give it the gun' to shoot back into the sky it apparently struck a downdraft air current The ship was not traveling at a rate of speed great enough to enable Gilbert to pull it through he told Cobb.

Hits Fence

As the ship dove toward the ground the undercarriage and landing gear knocked out 10 feet of rail fence and a small tree carried away both right wings The fuselage struck and skidded along the ground

Pilot Gilbert had presence of mind to turn the switch and cut off the motor when he saw he was going to crash Cobb said thus preventing the plane from catching fire

The crash, which occurred at 1 15 p m on the Davids farm about one half mile from the Gooding road attracted passing motorists Arthur and Robert Isler of near Prospect saw the accident They drove Gilbert and Williams to a physician's office in Marion where their injuries were treated The pilot later returned to the scene with Harold Cobb and took camera shots of the damaged plane

Value of the plane a two-seated Kinner Fleet biplane is estimated by Cobb at $1 000 The loss is not covered by insurance The training ship will be replaced by a new one in the near future, Cobb said.

Gilbert is credited by Cobb with being a steady and reliable pilot and the crash was unavoidable The accident will not affect Gilbert's standing as a pilot He holds a private pilot's license and an L C (Limited Commercial) license Gilbert has been flying more than two years and has had 175 hours experience in the air He began flying as a student at the Marion Flying Service Williams is connected with the airport as an apprentice mechanic

TWO MEN CAPTURED AFTER WALDO HOLDUP

Highway Patrol Nabs Pair After Assault on Filling Station Operator

Less than 20 minutes after they knocked out John Deeds manager of the Pure Oil Co service station at Waldo two Chicago Negroes were captured at the edge of Marion by state highway patrolmen from the sub-station here

The men took a revolver from a show case in the service station but did not rob the station of money A call to the highway patrol here a few minutes after the attack brought highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies to route 23 south and the men were intercepted by State Highway Patrolmen W H Hatunen and J D. Evans.

Deeds said the men entered the station shortly after 2 p m. and wanted to play cards for money. He told the men he had no money to lose and that he did not care to play. UNCERTAINTY DELAYS POLICE FORCE SLASH

Matter of Seniority Brings Plea for an Opinion by City Solicitor Carhart

Uncertainty on the part of city officials as to the procedure to be followed in reducing the personnel of the police department today had held up the cut in the force as provided in an ordinance passed last Friday night by council The new ordinance provides for a force consisting of one chief two captains two desk sergeants and eight patrolmen This will reduce the force four patrolmen

John V Ruth service-safety director today was attempting to clear up several questions involved chiefly the matter of seniority in the department He said he would ask City Solicitor Ralph E Carhart for an opinion

Mr Carhart said that although he had not yet gone into the question extensively he presumed the procedure would be for the director to ask the city civil service commission to certify to him the names of the last four men joining the department. If this does not clarify the questions involved they will likely be laid before the state civil service commission, Mr. Carhart said.

VICTORY BRINGS TALK OF PEACE

Discussions by Italians at Geneva Believed Aimed To Ward Off New Sanctions

By The Associated Press

Fascist soldiers had driven a spearhead deep into the body of Ethiopia today and Fascist diplomats in Geneva sought to supplement Italy's armed successes with a victory at the conference table

Specifically they sought to prevent the application of more sanctions against Italy by the League of Nations.

A spokesman for the little entente of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and Rumania said he was informed the domestic situation in Italy was serious from an economic standpoint and that he believes Premier Mussolini soon would be willing to negotiate for peace in Ethiopia

10,000 Ethiopians Killed

A possible additional incentive to such negotiations was seen in the feat of Marshal Pietro Badoglio's northern columns which smashed through the resistance of the Ethiopian armies in the Tembien sector and at the rocky redoubt of Amba Alaji with a reported loss of 10 000 men in the Ethiopian forces

An Associated Press war correspondent estimated that only 5 000 Ethiopians were left in the Tembien sector surrounded in Abbi Addi a village 25 miles west of Makale

Observers were of the opinion that these sweeping Italian gains may have satisfied Premier Mussolini's desires for conquest in Ethiopia, in which case the Geneva report that he was nearing a willingness to negotiate would be substantiated

Ready for Adequate Peace

An authoritative Italian source in Rome stated that Italy was ready to entertain adequate peace proposals

The harassed Emperor Haile Selassie was personally trying to consolidate Ethiopia's defenses in the north a Djibouti French Somaliland source stated

He was said to have left Dessye Feb 20 to inspect his defenses south of Tembien area and to confer with his military leaders

Official French sources in Paris further substantiated the statement that Premier Mussolini was willing to talk of peace at last

However other Parisian sources said the French government was undecided as to whether this indication on the part of Il Duce was a real desire for peace or the beginning of a diplomatic offensive

Would Oppose Sanctions

Such an offensive would include activities against the extension of sanctions

The British government, fearful that the Italo-Ethiopian war repercussions would spread to include the British empire in the strife prepared to make public its program for rearmament and increased national defenses

A white paper announcing the complete program is expected to be issued tomorrow

AUTO TAG SALE START DELAYED

Marion automobile owners anxious to get the first 1936 license plates were disappointed this morning when they arrived at the Marion Auto club office on East Center street to learn that application blanks had not been received from the state department of motor vehicles and that no plates could be sold

Deputy Registrar M F Baldwin said this morning he received assurance from Columbus that the blanks will be in Marion by Tuesday

Several buyers were on hand when the club office was opened at 8 a m today and one of the men told Mr Baldwin he had been waiting since 6 30

until the water recedes more the surveyor said This would be caused by the swollen rivers and streams of last week and the battering of jammed ice against the abutments Only one bridge—a small one over the Little Scioto river two miles west of the Marion airport—was in danger of being carried away during the flood period Blasting the ice jams saved it Tozzer said

The state highway department office here could give no estimate of the damage to highways in the county although officials said it probably will run high Harry Flasher assistant superintendent of maintenance in the highway department in Columbus predicted damage to state highways throughout the state would run into millions Less than 20 miles of ruined highway would run the damage to $1 000 000 he said and we are almost sure to have that much and a great deal more since that would be far less than a half mile to each county

Utilities Expense Boosted

Officials of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co here said their expense has been considerable in repairing pipe line breaks and leakages An approximate amount could not be given

While there were many breaks in water lines in other cities including about 200 in Mansfield the Marion Water Co reported only one minor break during the entire winter The water equipment damage here was confined to meters and service lines into residences which is borne by the consumer

Available estimates from 18 cities showed damage of $2 588 000 The Associated Press dispatch said Officials everywhere predicted the worst is yet to come

Of the total damage in cities $1 270 000 was in Cleveland for street repair, a $250 000 item in previous winters

A damage of $200 000 was given for Mansfield of which $100 000 was for streets Approximately 40 000 000 gallons of water were lost through the 200 breaks in lines Some of the other cities reported the following damage totals Fremont $4 000 Canton $70 000, Lorain $20 000 Zanesville $10 000 Newark $15 000 plus $50 000 in Licking county for damage to 400 miles of county roads Athens $75 000 Cincinnati $100 000 Akron $27 000 Youngstown $50 000 Massillon $35 000 Springfield $70 000

tion centers on the upper lakes will be scraping the bottom of the bin for domestic sizes and may have only a small amount of steam sizes left

Ore men say that by May the ore stock on lower lake and furnace piles will be reduced to about 10 000 tons At the same time last year stocks were 24 816 000 tons

Several sources estimate the number of ore carriers will be increased one fourth to one third over last year

Lake navigation opened last year on April 16 There is always the possibility the ice will delay it until May and severe winters have been known to hold up shipping on the upper lakes until June

Extreme cold and to some degree heavier commercial needs have created a demand which is likely to raise coal shipments to a new high this season sources in the coal trade say

A major shipping company handling ore and coal one reliable source indicated has tentative plans for giving every licensed officer in its fleet some kind of an officer's berth this year Last year many of them had to take lesser assignments because of slack lake traffic

FARLEY WILL INVADE NEW ENGLAND AREA

Plans Speeches and Parleys To Stop Campaign for Unpledged Groups

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON March 2—Primary tangles and intra party strife over strategy featured the political picture today as the dates of the forthcoming preferential ballots drew nearer

Chairman James A Farley of the Democratic national committee planned a New England tour for parleys and speeches designed to stir up sentiment in New Hampshire and Massachusetts to send a pledged delegation to the June convention in Philadelphia.

Primary activity intensified in New York California Georgia and Alabama and from Fr Charles E Coughlin radio priest came a declaration that his National Union for Social Justice will support candidates who pledge themselves before the primaries to drive the money changers from the temple

Farley's entrance into New England was signalled the start of the administration campaign to send to the convention only delegates pledged to President Roosevelt. Farley will address the young Democrats of New Hampshire at Manchester tonight and his speech will be broadcast

Former Gov Joseph B Ely an anti new deal Democrat returns from Florida tomorrow and is expected to combat Farley's plans

New Hampshire will elect its delegates a week from tomorrow in the first such primary in the nation John S Hurley a former Roosevelt man is among the four who have filed as unpledged delegates He declared the new deal policies are fraught with danger

TIRE UNION LEADERS REJECT PEACE PLAN

McGrady Speeds to Akron by Plane To Start All Over Again on New Proposal.

By The Associated Press

AKRON O March 2—Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co spokesmen said today union leaders had rejected the management's first move toward negotiations to end a two-week strike which has kept more than 14 000 persons idle

Edward F McGrady assistant secretary of labor hastened back by plane from Washington determined to start in all over again—on a new track—and keep right at it to bring peace

Law enforcement officials faced a decision by the Central Labor union to call a general strike of all organized Akron labor if force is used against picket lines

Goodyear spokesmen said the company's offer of a basis for negotiations had been drafted by two of its attorneys yesterday following suggestions by the Goodyear Industrial assembly an employes organization which unionists call a company union

The spokesmen said it was to be a verbal agreement providing that the plants remain closed while negotiations went on that pickets be reduced to two at each gate instead of the 10 provided for in a court injunction obtained by the company that negotiations be carried on by three men from the industrial assembly three from the company and three from the union and that wages hours and seniority rights be negotiated

Union leaders said the spokesmen insisted on a written agreement a stipulation that the company have the injunction vacated that pickets be reduced to five at each gate that the negotiating committee be composed of five from the company including any industrial assembly men and five from the union

AAA OFFICIALS OPEN NEW FARM PROGRAM

Roosevelt Signs $500,000,000 Soil Conservation Substitute for Invalidated Law.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 2—High AAA officials packed their bags today to speed into the field and launch the $500,000 000 soil conservation subsidy bill which President Roosevelt's signature has enacted into law

The President announced yesterday that he had signed the successor to AAA late Saturday night, 55 days after the supreme court struck down the old farm program

I do not regard this farm act as a panacea or as a final plan he said "Rather I consider it a new basis to build and improve upon as experience discloses its points of weakness and of strength.

"Aiming at justice for agriculture and self interest for the nation the plan seeks to salvage and conserve the greatest values in human life and resources with which this nation is endowed

AAA officials said a major aim will be to take 25 000 000 to 30 000 000 acres out of commercial crop production in 1936

Priest Attacks Ohio Judge Who Ridicules Stork

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI O, March 2—A member of the hierarchy of the Cincinnati archdiocese of the Roman Catholic church criticized today Common Pleas Judge Stanley Struble for his observation to a prisoner before him that "the stork is a dumb bird"

Msgr Frank A Thill chancellor of the diocese in a letter to all pastors of Catholic parishes in Hamilton county did not mention Judge Struble by name.

He asked however if "the judge in question was "speaking publicity as a birth control propagandist" or was speaking as a moralist or economist

"I deem it a duty" said Msgr Thill to call the attention of our people to the shocking disregard of fixed moral principles shown by a judge in the exercise of his office

Judge Struble addressed his comment last Wednesday to Louis Peach who arraigned on a burglary charge said he was the father of three children in four years of married life was himself one of 15 children and that his wife had 13 brothers and sisters

"It is all right to honor your father and mother Judge Struble told Peach "but you can do it without trying to emulate the size of their families The economic condition puts a limitation on the biblical injunction Be ye fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth

The stork is a dumb bird It goes dropping babies around without ever looking to see whether the pantry is bare I was that bird that put the old woman in the shoe

Msgr Thill in his letter said he would leave it to the judges of our courts and to legal profession of Cincinnati to pass on the propriety of a judge while exercising his duties on the bench asking questions which were in the first place irrelevant and which in the second place offended with justification a very large element of the community and testified that on Monday Feb 6 1933, he objected to the fact that his well and the Saltsman well were turned into the same line that on the following Thursday he shut his well off to make a test, the Saltsman well still being on

He claimed that the test indicated that the Saltsman well wouldn't deliver gas. He also testified that royalties for gas marketed between the date the Saltsman well was turned in and the date it was disconnected had to be estimated. After that they paid them all they thought they owed them. He denied that any arrangement to divert oil from the Saltsman lease to the Welker lease had been made.

FRANK BROS.

THE BOOMERANG CLUE

By Agatha Christie

(Copyright, 1934, Agatha Christie)

SYNOPSIS: At last Bobby Jones and Frankie Derwent have learned, with the help of their friend Badger, that Roger Bassington-ffrench is the villain of the mysterious murder of Alan Carstairs. And they have him securely bound on the floor of his cottage in Chipping Somerton. But they do not know where Moira Nicholson is, and they do not have proof that will convict Roger before a jury. Roger is quietly laughing at them from his uncomfortable position on the floor

CHAPTER 40

Moira

NOBODY had as yet evolved any plans. Bobby rather doubtfully murmured something about police

Much the best thing to do" said Roger cheerfully. Ring them up and hand me over to them. The charge will be abduction I suppose. I can't very well deny that. He looked at Frankie. I shall plead a guilty passion

Frankie reddened. What about murder?" she asked

My dear you haven't any evidence. Positively none. Think it over and you'll see you haven't

Badger said Bobby you'd better stay here and keep an eye on him. I'll go down and ring up the police

You'd better be careful said Frankie. We don't know how many of them there may be in the house

No one but me said Roger. I was carrying this through single handed

Bobby bent over and tested the knots

He's all right he said. Safe as houses. We'd better all go down together. We can lock the door

Terribly distrustful aren't you my dear chap?" said Roger. There's a pistol in my pocket if you'd like it. It may make you feel happier and it certainly's no good to me in my present position

Bobby bent down and extracted the weapon

Kind of you to mention it he said. If you want to know it does make me feel happier

Bobby took the candle and they filed out of the attic leaving Roger lying on the floor. Bobby locked the door and put the key in his pocket. He held the pistol in his hand

I'll go first he said. We've got to be quite sure and not make a mess of things now

A rather rickety flight of steps led down to the main landing. Everything was quiet. Bobby looked over the banisters. The telephone was in the hall below

We'd better look into these rooms first he said. We don't want to be taken in the rear

Badger flung open each door in turn. Of the four bedrooms three were empty. In the fourth a slender figure was lying on the bed

It's Moira cried Frankie

The others crowded in. Moira was lying like one dead except that her breast moved up and down ever so slightly

She's drugged I think said Frankie

She looked round. A hypodermic syringe lay on a little enamel tray on a table near the window

She'll be all right I think she said. But we ought to get a doctor

Let's go down and telephone said Bobby

They adjourned to the hall below. They got through to the police station quite easily but found a good deal of difficulty in explaining matters. The local police were highly disposed to regard the summons as a practical joke

However they were convinced at last and Bobby replaced the receiver with a sigh. He had explained that they also wanted a doctor and the police constable promised to bring one along

Ten minutes later a car arrived with an inspector a constable and an elderly man who had his profession stamped all over him

Bobby led the way to the attic—then stood dumbfounded in the doorway. In the middle of the floor was a heap of severed ropes. Underneath the broken skylight a chair had been placed on the bed which had been dragged out till it was under the skylight

Of Roger Bassington ffrench there was no sign

He must have had a knife in his pocket said Frankie

Even then how could he get at it? Both hands were bound together behind his back

The inspector coughed. All his former doubts had returned. He was more strongly disposed than ever to regard the whole thing as a hoax

The doctor was their salvation. He declared at once that Moira had been drugged with morphia or some preparation of opium. He did not consider her condition serious and thought she would awake naturally in four or five hours time

He suggested taking her off then and there to a good nursing home in the neighborhood

To this Bobby and Frankie agreed not seeing what else could be done. Having given their own names and addresses to the inspector who appeared to disbelieve utterly in Frankie's, they themselves were allowed to leave Tudor cottage and with the assistance of the inspector succeeded in gaining admission to the "Seven Stars" in the village

Here still feeling that they were regarded as criminals they were only too thankful to go to their rooms a double one for Bobby and Badger and a very minute single one for Frankie

A few minutes after they had all retired a knock came on Bobby's door. It was Frankie

I've thought of something she said. If that fool of a police inspector persists in thinking that we made all this up at any rate I've got evidence that I was chloroformed

Have you? Where

In the coal bucket said Frankie with decision

Exhausted by all her adventures Frankie slept late the next morning. It was half past ten when she came down to the small coffee room to find Bobby waiting for her

Hullo Frankie here you are at last

Don't be so horribly vigorous my dear. Frankie subsided into a chair

It must be the [illegible] said Bobby. It's probably [illegible] up adhesions in the brain. I feel absolutely full of pep and bright ideas and longing to dash out and do things

Well why not dash said Frankie languidly

I have dashed. I've been with Inspector Hammond for the last half hour. Well [illegible] as a practical joke Frankie for the moment

Oh but Bobby—

I said for the moment. We've got to get to the bottom of this Frankie. We're on the right spot and all we've got to do is to get down to it. We don't want Roger Bassington ffrench for abduction. We want him for murder

"And we'll get him" said Frankie with a revival of spirit

"That's more like it," said Bobby approvingly. "Drink some more tea."

"How's Moira?"

"Pretty bad. She came round in the most awful state of nerves. Scared stiff apparently. She's gone up to London—to a nursing home place in Queen's Gate. She says she'll feel safe there

"She never did have much nerve said Frankie

Well anyone might be scared stiff with a queer cold-blooded murderer like Roger Bassington ffrench loose in the neighborhood"

"He doesn't want to murder her. We're the ones he's after He's probably too busy taking care of himself to worry about us for the moment, said Bobby. Now Frankie the start of the whole thing must be John Savage's death and will. Either that will was forged or Savage was murdered or something."

"It's quite likely the will was forged if Bassington ffrench was concerned" said Frankie thoughtfully

"It may have been forgery and murder. We've got to find out Frankie nodded. I've kept the notes I made after looking at the [illegible]. The witnesses were Rose Chudleigh cook and Albert Mere gardener. They ought to be quite easy to find. Then there are the lawyers who drew it up—Elford & Leigh—a very respectable firm as Mr Spragge said"

Right we'll start from there. I think you'd better take the lawyers. You'll get more out of them than I would. I'll hunt up Rose Chudleigh and Albert Mere

What about Badger?"

Badger never gets up till lunch time—you needn't worry about him

We must get his affairs straightened out for him some time said Frankie. After all he [illegible] life

They'll soon get tangled again said Bobby. Oh by the way what do you think of this?"

He held out a dirty piece of cardboard for her inspection. It was a photograph

Mr Cayman said Frankie immediately. Where did you get it

Last night. It had slipped down behind the telephone

Then it seems pretty clear who Mr and Mrs Templeton were. Wait a minute"

The benevolent conspirators have a busy day tomorrow

DIONNES OUTDONE

Brood of Eight Born To Inspector Broadley's "Queen Nellie"

"I've sure got the Dionne quintuplets beat a mile"

That's what State Liquor Inspector H. T. Broadley says about his Scotty dog "Queen Nellie" who brought eight puppies into the world a little more than two months to shatter existing canine birth records around Columbus

Usually according to veterinarians and dog experts Scotty pups come in litters of twos threes and fours. Seven was the Columbus record until "Queen Nellie" entered the picture. She is 15 months old and it was her first litter. There are six female and two male pups. Their father bears a name that is as Scotch as the heather "Kokosing Brew."

State Inspector Broadley is in charge of liquor work in Marion and Morrow counties and lives at Hotel Harding

Madge Stops Argument of [illegible] by Promising Race

I HAD a shrewd suspicion of the reason for Betty Gibbs' proposal to go down in front of her house and stage a running race with [illegible] that she "was getting tired of shooting at the old marbles anyway."

But before I put my thought into words [illegible] when I realized what he was saying I tried vainly to stop him by putting my finger against my lips. He did not look in my direction however, and with the feeling that I might as well enjoy what I could not help I listened with amusement to the colloquy which I knew better than to interrupt, because it would make me appear in the role of taking sides in the controversy.

"What's the matter with you?" he queried jeeringly, "getting tired of getting beat?"

"What's the matter with you?" Betty retorted, her eyes snapping. "Afraid to try anything you can't win at?"

Roderick laughed raucously.

Rod Is Diplomat

"Meanin' you think you can beat Jun?" he inquired tauntingly. Then he turned to his cousin with an air of amused assurance.

"You're not afraid to take her on in her own front yard, are you, Jun?" he asked.

I found myself awaiting my son's answer with intense curiosity as well as amusement. Roderick was a born politician, I mirthfully commented to myself. With an adroitness worthy of a ward heeler he had maneuvered his cousin into a position where Junior would have the first trial of skill with Betty in a race, thereby giving himself an alibi and an advantage when he should race Betty.

If she scored over Junior, who is the better of the two boys in a race, Roderick's own defeat, should he lose, would be overshadowed by Junior's. And if he won—as he well might over an adversary fatigued from one race—he would have a double triumph.

Sissy Boys

I would have to spike that gun, I told myself, but in such a manner that the children would never suspect my interference. And having settled my course I realized that my son, with reddened face and ruffled demeanor, was hesitating oddly over his answer.

"Aw, forget it," he brought out at last. "What would we want to race a girl for, Rod? She's liable to fall down and hurt herself or—or—" he was patently groping in his memory for some expression that would fill his want, finding it in a recollection of an episode with his grandmother—"or have a heart attack or somethin', an' then we'd be blamed."

If he had planned with deliberate diabolism to infuriate Betty instead of seizing an inspiration of the moment to get out of a tight place, he could not have accomplished his object more quickly or more thoroughly. Her small fists clenched, her face crimsoned, her eyes widened and fairly blazed angry defiance at Junior.

"Sissy! 'Fraid cat! Baby!" She hurled the epithets at him as if they were missiles, and I wondered apprehensively if she would work herself up to a pitch where her wrath would find satisfaction only in using my young son as a target for real missiles.

Madge Offers Plan.

"You just don't dare race with me, either of you," she said with a withering glance including Roderick in her hymn of hate. "For you know I could beat both of you, first one and then the other. Yes, and forty dozen more like you. I never saw such sissies."

Her voice broke unevenly and I saw that she was near to explosive tears. The affair had gone beyond a children's bragging feat and called for adult interference, much as I hated to abandon my role of silent spectator and auditor.

I rose abruptly and gave a little amused laugh as I put myself in a strategic position between Betty and the boys.

"Don't you think you're all being rather silly?" I said. "There's only one way to settle this, and that is to have a race. If you are good children and stop this non-

sense at once, I'll gua
Mr Williams will arra

Raised Doughnuts Easily Made

Many old fashioned housekeepers have always preferred the raised doughnuts to those made by more modern recipes Recently requests have come in for raised doughnuts—and evidently from younger cooks who either remember the good doughnuts of other days—or their husbands remember those mother used to make

Here is the recipe used for two generations in an old Ohio family

One half cup milk, two tablespoons shortening three tablespoons sugar one half teaspoon salt one half cake compressed yeast two tablespoons warm water two egg yolks one half teaspoon grated lemon rind one half teaspoon nutmeg two cups flour

Scald milk pour over the shortening sugar and salt Cool to lukewarm Mix yeast with warm water, add to first mixture, when cooled Add well beaten egg yolks, lemon rind and nutmeg Add one half flour and beat well to a smooth stiff batter Stir in the remaining flour to make a soft dough Knead lightly on a floured board until smooth. Cover and let rise in a warm place until light. Use the dough immediately or place in refrigerator until ready to use. When ready to fry, [illegible]

MUSH FOUND HIS PAL "DUSTY," WORKING FOR AN ORGAN-GRINDER AND WITH HIS FATHER'S HELP WAS ABLE TO GET HIM HOME
I'LL RUN AHEAD AN' TELL MOM ABOUT "DUSTY"!
MOM-WHO DO YUH THINK WE GOT TO COME AN' LIVE WITH US?
I'M SURE I HAVE NO IDEA
I CAN'T SAY I'M GLAD! I HAVE PLENTY TO DO AROUND HERE ALREADY!
HELLO-LITTLE FELLOW!
GOSH, MOM-YOU'RE WONDERFUL!

Daily Pattern for Home Use

BY ANNE ADAMS

JUNIOR FROCK EASY-TO-MAKE, SMART FOR "PARTY-ING OR SPRING DRESS-UP"

The advent of Spring is sure to bring "younger-set" get-togethers for which a frock like this would be more than perfect. Styled for youngsters of six right up to the early Teens, it's a frock an ambitious school miss can make herself for the pattern Anne Adams has designed is both simple and easily followed. What young miss wouldn't adore a smooth, drop-shoulder yoke, partly encircled by a captivating flounce? See how, too, it sets off a slim figure and what feminine appeal there is in a sash of pretty, bright ribbon? Fashion it of monotone or printed silk, eyelet-batiste or dotted swiss in a pastel shade (for parties or dancing school.)

Pattern 2661 is available in sizes [illegible] 12 and 14. Size 12 takes [illegible] yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. STATE SIZE.

Send for our SPRING PATTERN BOOK NOW! See how easily you can have a flattering, individual wardrobe that'll keep you smart all season! Trim housedresses, gay sports clothes, lovely afternoon and party frocks. Clever slenderizing styles. Misses and children's patterns. And a full story of the latest fabrics, with tips on using them to best advantage. PRICE OF BOOK 15c. BOOK AND A PATTERN TOGETHER, 25c.

Address orders to The Marion Star, Pattern Department, 243 W. 17th St., New York, N. Y.

Claridon Team Wins County Basketball Championshi

DEFEATS PROSPECT BY 35 TO 17 SCORE IN TOURNEY FINALS

Fast Brand of Ball Carries Team to Victory for Second Year

Claridon High school cagers were crowned champions of Marion county for the second consecutive year Saturday night at the Steam Shovel gymnasium when they defeated Prospect High in the finals of the tournament by a score of 35 to 17.

After jumping into an initial lead the champs permitted Prospect to forge ahead for only a few brief seconds in the opening quarter. They staged a strong come back and led 6 to 4 at the quarter and 18 to 6 at the half. At the completion of the third period they held a [illegible] to 7 lead and coasted to an easy victory using a complete substitute team to finish the contest.

Both teams were slowed up, Prospect to a larger extent, by the strenuous play in afternoon semi-final conflicts. Prospect eked out a 21 to 20 victory over LaRue in the afternoon session and Claridon swamped the Green Camp quintet 33 to 10. The work of Lashey, Midlam and Trout was outstanding for the winners while Bumgartner and Fleming starred for the losers in the finals.

Defensive Is Good

Claridon's defensive work was exceptionally good permitting their opponents to score only one goal in the first half and the remaining five goals in the last period. Trout of Claridon was the first player to break into the scoring column by sinking a neat sucker shot after dribbling in from the center of the court. Bricker scored on a free throw and Bumgartner added two more free throws to give Prospect a [illegible] 2 to lead for a few fleeting seconds before Lashey sank a fielder for Claridon. Trout added two points to the winning team's [illegible] by sinking a follow-in shot and Fleming scored from the 15-foot line for Prospect as the quarter ended with the champs leading 6 to 4.

Trout sank two fielders in the opening minutes of the second period and Prospect took time out in a futile attempt to formulate a successful defense against the clever and hard playing Claridon team. Four baskets in rapid succession by Lashey, Ault and Midlam gave the winners an 18 to 4 lead. This period ended as Bumgartner succeeded in snagging Prospect's first shot from the field.

[illegible] the third stanza with an 18 to 6 count in their favor the Claridon basketeers set up their offensive plays with a little more deliberation and successfulness. Midlam accounted for five points as he scored after taking the ball off the bankboard and then [illegible] three free throws. Trout tossed in two action shots for Claridon and Christensen made good on a charity toss to account for Prospect's lone score in the third period.

Prospect Rallies

Trailing 7 to 7 at the start of the final period the Prospect team put on a momentary burst of speed. Thomas registered on a long shot but Trout retaliated for Claridon by making two free throws. The teams exchanged points twice as Midlam and Lashey collected field goals for Claridon and Fleming made two similar shots for Prospect. Ault broke away to tally Claridon's final points as the regulars of the winning squad were being replaced. Hoffman tossed the final goal for Prospect as the game finished 35 to 17.

Claridon and Prospect together with the winner of the LaRue-Green Camp game Tuesday night at 8 o'clock will represent Marion county in the district tournament at Westerville this week end. Should they be successful in the opening rounds they will return for semi-finals and finals to be held the following week.

Prospect and LaRue in Close Battle

A nip and tuck battle with neither team leading by more than three points during the entire conflict gave court enthusiasts plenty of action in the Prospect-LaRue semi-final game of the Marion County tournament Saturday afternoon.

The teams played through nearly six minutes of fast basketball before Bumgartner succeeded in breaking the scoring ice by tallying a goal for Prospect. Greenwood, LaRue forward, made a similar shot as Lawrence tossed a free throw to give Prospect a 3-2 lead at the [illegible] of the [illegible] period.

LaRue [illegible] in the second period but Prospect had a [illegible] advantage at the start of the final quarter. Through the last [illegible] the teams [illegible] for the lead and with the score tied at 19-19 Bricker sank a middle distance shot from the side of the court to give Prospect the winning lead. White of LaRue had an opportunity to tie up the ball game when he was fouled by [illegible] in the act of shooting [illegible] nerve. White stepped to the charity line and swished the first shot through the hoop. His second attempt bounced across the rim and dropped outside as the game ended with Prospect winning by one point.

After permitting Green Camp to get the opening basket Claridon cagers settled down to steady play in the other semi-final afternoon game and built up a [illegible] victory. With Midlam, Lashey and Trout hitting the net with accuracy the Claridon outfit ran up a 9 to 2 count at the completion of the first period and were out in front 14 to 5 at the half.

Claridon permitted its opponents to score only five points in the second half as the winning team rang up a total of eight field goals and three fouls. Lashey, stellar Claridon forward, made a total of 16 points on six fielders and four free throws to collect high scoring honors while Trout, center, tallied three field goals and three free throws.

Cage Teams Meet for Consolation Awards

Martel defeated Morral Saturday afternoon in the first consolation game 24 to 20. Martel held one point advantages at the completion of both of the first periods and in the third stanza scored heavily to ease up in the final round. Waltley starred for the winning team while Buckley was the outstanding performer of the Morral team.

Pleasant experienced little trouble in disposing of Agosta by a 31 to 16 score. With Riff and Holliday pacing the winning squad they held substantial advantages at the end of each period and it was only during the second that Agosta succeeded in outscoring them by a single point.

The winning teams of the afternoon consolation contests were matched for evening encounters with the teams losing in the semi-final games. Lawrence with eight points to his credit paced the LaRue team to a 25 to 20 victory over Martel. Waltley accounted for 13 of the Martel team's points but his work alone was insufficient to keep the squad in the running with the fast breaking LaRue quintet.

After trailing [illegible] to [illegible] at the start of the final period the Green Camp cagers came from behind to score a 3[illegible] to 31 victory over Pleasant in the second consolation contest Saturday night. Houck, Green Camp guard, scored the winning bucket in the final minute of play after the team spurted through the last four minutes with the lead changing hands often.

The complete Tuesday night schedule follows: 7 o'clock, United Brethren vs. Lutheran; 7:45, Trinity Baptist vs. Forest Lawn and 8:30, First Reformed vs. Epworth M. E.

OHIO COLLEGE CAGE SEASON NEARS END

All but One Contest Scheduled for This Week Are Merely Anti-Climax

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 2—Ohio's collegiate basketball season staggers to a close this week with 14 of the 15 scheduled contests furnishing only an anti-climax.

A share of the Buckeye conference championship hangs in the balance at Delaware Monday night when Ohio Wesleyan entertains Dayton university, but most of the other tilts are just for fun. Five are Ohio conference frays.

The Wesleyan-Dayton clash features the program with the Battling Bishops needing a victory to tie Cincinnati for the Buckeye crown. Wesleyan held the laurels the last two years and is confident of turning back the Flyers to salvage at least a part of former glories.

The Redskins of Miami university put Wesleyan back in the title race Saturday night by handing the Bearcats of Cincinnati their second league defeat of the season, 28 to 23. If Dayton turns back the Bishops, Wesleyan will finish in a second place tie with Ohio University.

Marietta, its season closed, is the Ohio conference champion, but Mt. Union, second place, needs a victory over Heidelberg Wednesday night to clinch that berth.

CENTRAL ALUMNI DEFEAT VARSITY

The Alumni team of Central Junior High school defeated the Central Junior varsity 24 to 19 in a game played at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night. In a preliminary game between seventh grade teams the Central Junior team defeated North Main's squad 30 to 13. Box scores follow:

Mt. Gilead Wins in Morrow County

Special to The Star

CARDINGTON, March 2—Mt. Gilead High school boys team romped to a 35 to 25 victory over Sparta in the Morrow county tournament finals played here Saturday night to win the championship for the third time in six years. Captain Bob Payne, selected as the all-county center, led Coach Tommy Bender's team to victory by making five goals and five fouls for a total of 15 points. Keller, opposing center, was high point man of the Sparta quintet with four fielders and a foul to his credit. The losing squad was handicapped when Brubaker, selected as an all-county guard, was unable to play because of a leg injury. Both teams will enter the Class B tournament at [illegible] this week end.

In afternoon semi-final contests Mt. Gilead had eliminated Marengo in easy fashion by a score of 2[illegible] to 14 while Sparta came from behind in the final half to eliminate Cardington 18 to 15.

Trophies were presented by H. O. Hanna, county superintendent, to Captain Payne of Mt. Gilead and Captain Belcher of Sparta. League trophies for the girls teams were awarded to Johnsville and Mt. Gilead. The Johnsville team won the third successive league championship when it recently completed a heavy schedule with an impressive record of victories.

All-county team selections based on tournament and season play were picked by the newspapers of the county. The selections follow: First team, forwards, Fendell of Edison, Belcher of Sparta; center, Payne of Mt. Gilead; guards, Miracle of Mt. Gilead and Sears of Sparta. Second team, forwards, Bomberger of Mt. Gilead, Scott of Iberia; center, Keller of Sparta; guards, Burgh of Iberia, Sprung of Cardington. Honorable mention, forward, Staffer of Johnsville, Palmer of Sparta; center, Wilson of Cardington; guards, Brubaker of Sparta, Kelly of Edison and Jones of Cardington.

The box score of the final game follows:

Marseilles Champs in Wyandot County

Special to The Star

NEVADA, March [illegible]—Marseilles High school cagers were crowned champions of the Wyandot county tournament when they defeated the McCutchenville team 52 to 39 in the final round of the tourney played at the high school gymnasium here Saturday afternoon. In the consolation tournament finals McCutchenville won over Eden 45 to 40 to earn the right to accompany the Marseilles team in representing the county in the sectional tournament at Carey March [illegible].

Eden entered the final game by virtue of its 34 to 30 victory over Sycamore after both teams had won in the consolation games played Friday. Grossman, Eden forward, was the high scorer of the tournament collecting a total of [illegible] points. In the Eden-Sycamore game he scored 13 to 21 points registered by his team in the first half of the conflict.

The Saturday night program featured both boys and girls games. The McCutchenville lassies downed the Wharton High team 34 to 16. In the final tournament conflict Harpster scored a 40 to 38 victory over Sycamore in the last thirty seconds of play to win the game which decided fourth place.

Following the Saturday night games, H. H. Silverman, tournament manager and superintendent of the Nevada schools, presented trophies to the coaches of the winning teams. Recipients of the trophies were Lloyd Boggs of Marseilles, Stanley Hufford of McCutchenville and Boyd M. Sobers of Eden.

WONDERS DROP GAME

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, O., March 2—The Waterloo Wonders, phenomenal high school basketball quintet from Lawrence county, went out of their class to defeat here last night dropping a 40 to 19 game to the Cincinnati Redlegs, a pro team. O. Roberts, Waterloo guard, topped both teams with 11 points.

Milford Center Wins in Union Co.

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE, March 2—Milford Center High school basketeers won the Union county championship in a 21 to 17 victory over Watkins High in the finals of the county tournament here Saturday night. The teams were deadlocked 3-3 at the finish of the first period and Watkins took a 13-10 lead at the half. Sensational playing by the winning squad tied the score during the third stanza and in the final frame they were successful in adding a four point lead.

Milford Center had earned the right to compete in the championship game by edging out a [illegible] victory over Allen Center in the semi-final round while Watkins defeated Darby 37 to 20 in the other semi-final game. Darby and Allen Center, the teams defeated in the semi-finals, battled through a consolation game which Darby won 18 to 17 for the right to play in the finals of the consolation tournament. Darby will meet Raymond in the final consolation game here Wednesday night to decide which team will be Union county's third representative in the Class B district competition at Westerville this week. Raymond defeated Byhalia 25 to 23 in the consolation final in a game which required six seconds of an overtime period to decide. Cox scored the winning basket for Raymond on a [illegible] from the tip-off to give the [illegible] the two points necessary to win when a contest goes into an overtime period. INDIANA TO BATTLE FOR HALF INTEREST IN BIG TEN TITLE

O S U Stands in Way of Hoosiers Claim to Crown with Purdue

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, March 2—Indiana will [illegible] a share of the Western [illegible] basketball championship [illegible]

[illegible] will close their [illegible]ful season since 1926 [illegible] Ohio State at Bloomington. Anyone who doesn't think the Hoosiers will be primed to the [illegible] for the effort hasn't much of [illegible] of how seriously basketball is taken in Indiana. Indiana, which has suffered numerous disappointments in Big Ten basketball [illegible] will be seeking re[illegible].

Ohio State periled Hoosier hopes [illegible] by handing Indiana its [illegible] defeat of the conference season.

Only a last-minute upset triumph over Purdue by Northwestern hauled Indiana back into a [illegible] position.

Purdue's Boilermakers will [illegible] the other half of the championship unless something goes wrong [illegible] play their final game Saturday night with Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Indiana, with Ken Gunning scoring 19 points, played its best [illegible] last night to conquer Northwestern 41 to 31 while Purdue was rolling over Iowa 51 to 35.

Illinois remained in third place by [illegible] out a 30 to [illegible] [illegible] over Ohio State at Columbus. Wisconsin closed its home season with a 40 to 3[illegible] decision over Chicago. The defeat was the Maroons' tenth straight.

Illinois could [illegible] third place tonight by defeating Michigan [illegible] for the [illegible] Ann Arbor. Iowa plays Chicago and Wisconsin tackles Northwestern at Evanston tonight in other games.

Northwestern and Chicago [illegible] on the Maroon floor Saturday. Ohio State finishes its [illegible] against Notre Dame at South Bend Tuesday.

K-Y SENIORS DROP LEAD IN LEAGUE

The K-Y Seniors were dropped from the pinnacle of the Torch Y league when they suffered a 26 to 20 defeat at the hands of the Arrow team in a game played at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday. It was the final game for the Seniors and two other teams, the Olympians and Castle squads, also have only one defeat but have not yet completed their schedules. If the Olympians win their final game and the Castle team is victorious in its two remaining games, the teams would place in a three-way tie for the title.

Results of other games Saturday were a victory for the Norseman over the B-square team by a 19 to 15 score and a 40 to 23 victory for the Eroslons over the K-Y Juniors.

FINAL STANDINGS OF LEAGUE ISSUED

Final standings of teams in the Y. M. C. A. Comrade club basketball league were issued this morning following a completion of the schedule late last week. The Vernon Wildcats finished the season in first place with four victories and two defeats. The Central Bluestreak and Central Phantoms tied for second place in the league with three victories in six games and the North Main team placed fourth with two games won in six played.

FARM SHARES FIRM MARKET

Agricultural Implement, Sugar Merchandising and Motor Issues Figure in Advance.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK March 2 — The stock market pulled itself back on firmer ground today with strong support from a group of shares directly or indirectly linked to agriculture

Advances of major fractions up to 2 points were numerous among farm implement sugar merchandise motor and specialty issues late in the third hour While rails and utilities were at no time under pressure many were unchanged and there were a few losers of small accounts.

Wheat cotton and other commodities were almost lifeless and the trend was mixed Corporate bonds had a fairly steady tone but governments developed a faint stripe of irregularity around the noon hour International dollar rates were about unchanged

Principal gainers in the share list included U S Steel Bethlehem Chrysler General Motors Marshall Field Macy American Sugar Refining Great Western Sugar Western Union Union Carbide Motor Products International Harvester and Deere J I Case worked up 4 points under [illegible]igh demand

Wall Street did not seem greatly excited over the national tax situation the feeling being general that this congress will do little more than take care of necessities with no serious effort made to alter income levies

While encouragement was seen in business news generally financial sentiment was a little mixed as the markets started the new week

Trade reviews estimated that industrial corporation earnings for the first quarter of this year will show an average increase of around 10 per cent over the comparable 1935 period

On the shadowy side of the picture was the report of President Green of the American Federation of Labor that unemployment increased more in January than in any other similar period in the last five years

Sterling at the beginning of foreign exchange dealings was off ¾ of a cent at $4.99¾ and the French franc was .00¼ of a cent easier at 6.68¾ cents

GALION MAN GETS STOLEN CASH BACK

Reports Pocket Picked of $200 in Marion and Most of It Returned.

A Galion man George Francisco, had the sad experience of having his pocket picked of $200 in Marion Saturday night and yesterday enjoyed the stimulating aftermath of having the persons he suspected return most of the money and promise to repay the remainder

The "sleight of hand" theft occurred in a local cafe Francisco told Sheriff Fred F Miller he had gone there with a couple of acquaintances to dine When they were there but a few minutes the couple excused themselves for a moment and beat a retreat out the rear door Francisco reported the matter to Sheriff Miller and was prepared to swear out a warrant for their arrest today

Apparently fearing prosecution they came to the Galion man yesterday and returned $185 of his money and made arrangements to repay the remaining $15 which they had spent Francisco informed Sheriff Miller today Francisco will not file charges.

The money was in a billfold in his back trousers pocket when stolen he said

YOUTHS ARRESTED AS THEFT SUSPECTS

Two from Marion Accused in Roundup at Kenton and Lima

Marion and Kenton police today believed they had reached a solution to a series of auto thefts in Hardin and Marion counties and at least two holdups at Lima Police hoped to clean up the thefts and holdups with the arrest of three youths following questioning of the fourth after his apprehension in Kenton Authorities there said they found the fourth boy driving a car belonging to Blair Iseli of 637 Henry street

The three arrests followed questioning of Robert Neth 18 of Lima and his return to Kenton to face charges of operating an automobile without the owner's consent Hayden Cornwell 18 of Lima his cousin James Cornwell 16 of 166 East Center street and Paul Wade 16 of 617 North Prospect street were the others arrested

Hayden Cornwell apprehended by Kenton police, was bound over to the grand jury under $500 bond at Kenton after pleading guilty to stealing the automobile of Mrs. Amil F Buerger, north of Kenton, last December. James Cornwell also taken into custody by Marion police, was returned to Marion after being taken to Kenton for questioning and turned over to juvenile court today to face charges of auto stealing, authorities said.

Wade was implicated in the theft of the last car through the questioning of Neth. [illegible] other youths [illegible] of taking part in [illegible] Wade was [illegible] Lima authorities to face charges there in connection with two holdups police said Neth accused them of holding up Mrs Forrest Hill of 781 Oak Grove avenue and Mrs F R Evans of [illegible] in Lima two weeks [illegible] and also of a previous holdup of a dry cleaning establishment there

FR. COUGHLIN OPENS OFFENSIVE IN OHIO

Will Indorse Congressional Candidates Supporting National Union.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, March 2—In all but two of the 24 congressional districts of Ohio Rev Charles F Coughlin said the National Union of Social Justice "will indorse either a Republican or Democrat on the grounds that such a candidate has publicly pledged to support our principles

If we cannot succeed in helping to nominate a candidate who believes in our principles it will be a waste of time to vote next November" he asserted in his weekly radio address

During the coming campaign the Royal Oak priest announced the union will indorse certain candidates who pledge themselves before the primary elections to drive the money changers from the temple by fully restoring to congress the right to coin and regulate money and [illegible] the right now enjoyed by the [illegible] stream of bankers

Your Health

BY DR R S COPELAND

Acne

Acne is an annoying skin disorder It is a painless affliction but leads to a great deal of mental discomfort and embarrassment In [illegible] instances the disorder is encountered in young persons who are naturally anxious to have clear skin and glowing complexion

The victim of pronounced acne has a greasy and unhealthy looking skin The face neck and back are covered with unsightly pimples Due to continued irritation and neglect these become infected and filled with pus

How can acne be prevented? This is the question uppermost in the minds of these young sufferers It is comforting that acne can be cured but this is possible only by rigid attention to diet hygiene and the observance of correct health habits

Between the ages of 12 and 30 years the internal glands are exceedingly active Even the glands of the skin work vigorously These glands have ducts or passageways opening into the skin They are liable to become blocked inflamed and infected

For this reason it is absolutely necessary that every effort should be made to keep the skin clean and healthy Daily bathing regular elimination regular hours of sleep and plenty of fresh air and sunshine are necessary if one is to have a healthy skin In addition all centers of infection such as infected teeth nasal sinuses adenoids and tonsils must be given attention

Proper diet is essential to the prevention and cure of acne The use of starches and sugars must be limited Avoid all fried and greasy foods excessive use of salt peppers spices pickles and other condiments

Too often the sufferer resorts to the use of salves ointments and other remedies These are of little or no value They are worthless if the diet is neglected and the skin not cared for as it should be

In a severe case where the acne persists despite diet and hygienic care beneficial results are sometimes obtained by the administration of a vaccine As a rule this vaccine is most successful if made direct from a pustule or sore containing pus Your doctor will advise you about this

The lamp treatment or x-ray is advised in certain cases But under no circumstances should either of these be used unless it is advised and directed by a reputable physician

Dr Copeland is glad to answer inquiries from readers who send addressed stamped envelopes with their questions Address all letters to Dr Copeland in care of this newspaper at its main office in this city

LONDON March 2—The foreign office announced today that Germany has informed Great Britain that she is prepared to negotiate an Anglo-German bilateral treaty on the basis of any agreement reached at the present four power naval conference

The question of Germany's participation in the proposed treaty sought by the United States Great Britain France and Italy has been one of the main bones of contention in the conference

BUREAU CHIEF HONORS MARION WEATHER MAN

Dr E H Raffensperger's Long Service Wins Personal Letter of Tribute

Personal recognition of more than 45 years as Marion's weather observer has come to Dr E H Raffensperger of 209 South Prospect street from W R Gregg chief of the weather bureau of the United States department of agriculture in Washington D C

In a letter of greeting to the veteran dentist—Dr Raffensperger is 75 years of age and has engaged in his profession in Marion for more than 53 years—the bureau chief paid him high tribute for his services not only to Marion and Ohio but also to the Washington bureau

The letter follows

"It is with a great deal of pleasure that I note from our records that you have in the capacity of cooperative observer at Marion furnished this bureau with valuable weather reports for more than 45 years As you know there are at the present time scattered from coast to coast nearly 5 000 cooperative observers of the weather bureau but comparatively few have to their credit such long and distinguished service as yours

"We fully realize what it means in the way of inconvenience and bother to make these weather observations day after day year in and year out and with the years accumulated to the imposing number you have served without monetary compensation the latter becomes so outstanding as to make fitting these words of personal greeting congratulation and assurance of appreciation therefor

"Your contribution to the climatology of Ohio and the work of the weather bureau in general is of great value and we are glad of the opportunity to recognize it in this personal way There come to you with this message the sincere hope for many more years of health and for your continuance through them as a valued member of our official family in the capacity of cooperative observer at Marion"

Dr Raffensperger has made daily reports to The Star for a long period of years in addition to the telegraphic communications to the state bureau in Columbus every morning of the year

To the veteran dentist whose sprightly walk and keen interest in local state and national affairs belie his 75 years the daily routine of observing and reporting Marion's weather is a hobby and one which he enjoys thoroughly Dr Raffensperger will be 76 on April 8

Crow Eaters Offered Meal That Meets All Fancies

By The Associated Press

The week end was a holiday for the back-to-nature eater and the weatherwise

Dr Raymond C Osburn head of Ohio State university's zoology department lifted a sophisticated eyebrow at the talk of eating crow and offered a menu really made up of the world's fauna It included snails and honey ants birds nest soup alligator steak and roast skunk dried devil fish fried locusts and tender brown [illegible] eyes and minced crow pie Somebody somewhere in the world said the doctor eats at least one of these items regularly

That white-haired merry weather observer in Columbus William H Alexander eyed the clear skies of March 1 and said this business of March coming in like a lamb and going out like a lion is the bunk
